

SHOPEASE – ORDER CANCELLATION POLICY

Policy Version: 2026.1

1. Cancellation Before Shipment

Customers can cancel an order before it is shipped.

If payment has already been captured, a refund will be initiated.

2. Cancellation After Shipment

Orders normally cannot be cancelled after shipment.

Customers may refuse delivery where supported or request a return after receiving the product.

3. Cancellation by ShopEase

ShopEase may cancel an order because of:

- Product unavailability.
- Incorrect pricing.
- Payment verification failure.
- Suspected fraudulent activity.
- Delivery restrictions.
- Technical errors.

4. Refund After Cancellation

If an order is successfully cancelled after payment, the refund is processed according to the Refund Policy.

5. Partial Cancellation

Customers may cancel individual items from an order if those items have not yet been shipped.

6. Promotional Orders

If cancelling an item causes an order to become ineligible for a promotional discount, the final refund may be adjusted according to the applicable promotion terms.

7. Cancellation Request

Customers should provide:

- Order ID.
- Item details.
- Reason for cancellation.

8. Important

Cancellation is not guaranteed once an order enters the shipping process.
